

thinner network

dick richards's biography written by dick richards

dick richards lives in toronto/canada and has played bassguitar in various canadian punkbands early in the 80's. at that point already dick was influenced by dub/reggae. end of the 80's he left canada for several years to live abroad in barcelona and sydney for a while. as he returned to toronto in the mid-90s he began to deal with electronic music and soon had a prolific output. meanwhile dick has been working with the canadian etlabel "notype" for years and has released most of his works there. at one point he began sending out demos to various labels and on top of that got signed by the german label "raum...musik". 2001 he released 12"s on below and raum...musik, that have been followed by the 2002 album „amanecer“. since the album was highly and critically acclaimed, he toured across germany.